

---

Atomkraftwerk Zwentendorf

Hope Tucker*<sup>1</sup>

<sup>1</sup>Hampshire College [Amherst] – États-Unis

Résumé

Forty years ago Austrians voted against opening a nuclear power plant that had already been built. Atomkraftwerk Zwentendorf is a monument to the power of public protest and the potential of a democratic vote.

Mots-Clés: nuclear proliferation, sea level rise, climate change, democracy, voting, Fukushima, Chernobyl, energy, Austria, Green Party

---

*Intervenant